The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Dept. of Public Safety in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2023-2024 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2023. The use of these funds in this county require a local match in the amount specified above. The county can approve programs for 1 or 2 year funding awards, dependent on county approval and programs meeting all requirements.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Clinical Assessment	Problem Sexual Behavior Treatment	Life Skills
Substance Abuse Assessment	Temporary/Runaway Placement	Parent/Family Skill Building
Substance Abuse Treatment	Specialized/Temporary Foster Care	Interpersonal Skill Building
Home Based Family Counseling	Restitution/Community Service	Vocational Development
Individual/Family/Group Counseling	Teen Court (Sentencing Circles)	Mentoring

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

* School Behavior Problems	* Victimization (Bullying and Sexual Vulnerability)
* Marginal Parenting Skills	* Substance Abuse Use
* Mental Health
* Family Criminality

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Youth Assessment Screening Instrument for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain:	Davie County youth involved with juvenile justice are more likely to associate with others involved in delinquent activities.
Individual Domain:	Substance Abuse, mental health, health care services are critical issues in providing assistance to youth and families involved in the juvenile justice system. Programs receiving JCPC funds shall provide appropriate access to these services.
Family Domain:	Parental support and/or parental enhancement skills are needed for court-referred youth. Access to services that provide best practices and have the ability to engage families are needed.
School Domain:	Youth involved with the Davie County juvenile justice system have increased risk of school behaviors issues reflected in prolonged absences, suspensions, failing grades, and attendance issues.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.
5. Programs are encouraged to provide effective programming that includes restorative justice practices.
6. Program/agency committed to addressing racial and ethnic disparities in the juvenile justice system.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
